1. I am healed, whole, complete, replete. I heal whole complete replete many others now, on my way to being who I am, I am now whole complete king of kings letting all know they are; if they'll be me, not; they are me, but not knowing it, surrender not, not, knowing how, what, why, or where all this, all these things took place - have taken place over many eons. I love you. Give you me, I have, I do, again and again.

2. Whole healed, taking its place now; its toll, not; but giving each life, the life I lead. Into slavery not, the richest king of kings is king of kings, the one mighty I am, leading all into being, realizing now, they are, were, all the time -- me!

3. I love you dictating me; dictating to me, not; but the greatest of these years to be, is now, thus; and so ends now, the era's of not me. I eradicate evil from the earth. I establish peace. Here I am -- it, realizing it -- I am, the one to lead in -- wholeness completeness repleteness, healing many into the healedness I only can give. I love you. Technology comes.

4. Your robe I wear, for I wear your robe; not outside but inside the holy of holies, now outside all will be seen -- correctly, for I am the one that reveals all, I transparent am -- my holy of holies replete, correct, yield through the word of I am -- this Database perfectly, giving me confidence not, but confidencing me to be me who I am, really is -- I am healed whole complete replete. Healing many others now I go far, I do, love you all.

5. Healing my vestiture, not; but my! -- the greatest of these is love loved, made manifest in the world earth this day. Today is the day of salvation. Great and mighty my name. I love you all. Be my name who I am really is whole healed complete replete; -ing others now, throughout the worlds far and mighty, to be far and mighty no longer in their own strength and length of distance. Only me now they shall be, for I give the right, not; I give the left, not; I give me healed whole. Deliverance ministry I have, I am the great deliverer. I deliver healedness, wholeness, and repleteness -- healing thousands now in my meetings and givings of only me where I give myself completely to who surrender to be I am, the holy of holies revealed, King of Kings in his presence, being the King of Kings -- all who will -- surrender and be me, who were -- are again, knowing, and not ignorant ever again.

6. Assimilating all I will be in the greatest cataclysmic move of love. All known now, I am the speaker of me. Raising other speakers now who speak not their own mind, but mine alone -- being it, complete –d, and completing others. Repleteness wrecks havoc with all notme. I give you me alone, untainted, untortured, unyoked -- healed whole corrected love manifested now as no one suspected; and the simple of me, who speak my words, my words healing them, healing the healers, that will now heal others. Lands far and wide will be my name now, speak my language, be my culture of goodness healing many; all others, not, not. I go to all who speak my words, correctly -- correcting them; in timidness, not; but the greatest love, now resides, inside love -- love loved correctly -- loving all to be -- healed whole -- only I am -- complete replete, rivering my goodness to all who will drink of my fountain correctly, rivering untaintedness now -- I clear the air of all things not me, and no ions of notme will exist. Never were in reality, only notme thought they were -- something else, other than me -- but that changes now, I have a changer standing up who will regal the notme into being me, who I've loved with all my heart, who loves you the same -- way made, highway cleared -- all coming into me now -- I have a forgiver, clean, clear of sorrow -- am now making all to be, known -- and now the holy of holies, open, restored -- all shall be my name, -sake of only me being me wholly healed -- vestiture of only me, forsaken not now -- my eagles shall fly.

7. Who cares about me? My words, will they sorrow you, or make you whole healed? And loving tomorrow, not; but what about today, those beside you, in you, around you, around your head -- what are they, where do they come from, what are theirs business? Around to what where now? Whole healed -- do -- be. Come the mighty now, being them, you are -- who let me. Be created perfectly now; in my name, not; but yours -- being the healer, healing all in your path who let me be the greatest King of Kings. Of all time, not; of all there is, all there was, all there will be -- will be me, who let me -- us, reigning in majesty. Splendorific opportunity never having been before, just like this, not; but now the me is perfected.

8. I love you. Give you me I have -- my words before you, are. In love with me be -- I are you. Be me forever in love with love, holy of holies open, rivering truth, now, to all who will be me, we, us, one. Now and forever unto he who makes us one, not; but shows us the way -- to be it, I have all things in his hand, who the King of Kings is. Will you be one, too -- also -- being the one I am, is, truly is? Now before you all. You all choose now who you are, doing what, to -- and from.
